

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.

You are at a sporting event when you here a yell for help. When you arrive there is a person on the ground unconscious. When you assess them you realise they are not breathing.